Remote Jobs and Economic Development program

What did we hear during consultations?

From April to July 2024, we asked you what you thought about the new Remote Jobs and Economic Development program.

People in remote communities and other key stakeholders had their say on what the new program should look like.

We received feedback from:

3100 + people

around 200 remote communities

80 + survey and submission responses

8 roundtables

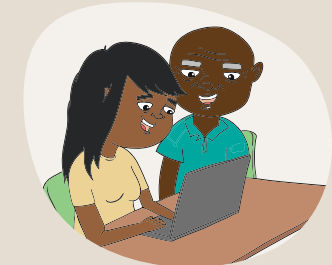

We heard that employers and employees want the program to include:

Skills and support to complete paperwork

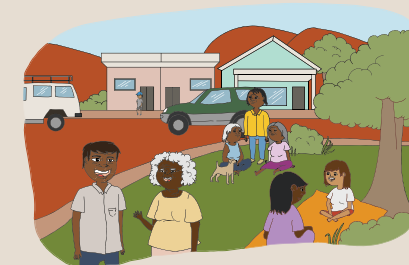

Continuous on-the-job training

Ongoing tailored mentoring and coaching

Employment that supports local cultural needs

Long-term sustainability of jobs
